ABSTRACT

Noordi, Asy Syiffa Fatata Rahima. 2023. The Use Of Instagram To Improve Students' Efl Writing. SARJANA'S THESIS, English Department, Faculty of Teachers' Training and Education, Lambung Mangkurat University, Banjarmasin. The first advisor: -, the second advisor: -.
Key words: EFL students , Instagram , improvement , Systematic Literature Review , writing

Good writing skill are essential for effectively sharing information and ideas, which is pivotal for achieving academic and professional success. Proficiency in grammar, punctuation, spelling, and conveying clear concepts are integral components of this skill. However, there is a lack of interest and skills in writing for some people in various range of ages. Moreover, Digital advancement is the thing that is developing most rapidly along with the advancement of humanity ability to comprehend science. Even in the realm of education, the integrity of Communication and Information Technology (ICT) is undeniable. Educators often use social sites to support teaching and learning. The problem of this research are focused on whether or not Instagram can improve students of EFL writing skill.

The methodology used in this research is Systematic Literature Review (SLR). Systematic literature review is a research method for identifying, evaluating and interpreting all relevant research results related to certain research questions, certain topics, or phenomena of concern. Systematic Literature Review has several stages, namely: planning, conducting, reporting.

In regards of the research papers, the utilization of the social media Instagram provide significant improvement in students of EFL writing ability. Students' positive attitude and excitement in utilizing the social media, namely Instagram , that they are already familiar with, contributed to their appeal to learn and it resulted in an improvement of their writing skill.
